

Mail2World Email Advertising Opportunities

EVERY 30 DAYS, YOU GET A CHECK...IT'S THAT SIMPLE

If you are a service provider or operate a social network, hosting service or search engine, why not offer your users a valuable new service that generates revenue for your company? Your private-label, ad-sponsored email service from Mail2World provides users with the richest feature set available while providing your organization with profitable earnings, customer loyalty and recurring traffic.

M2W Sponsored Email is a fast, easy way to jump-start new revenue streams from your free and premium email offerings. Banners and taglines in key locations on our Webmail and mobile email interfaces can display in-house ads and partner promotions as well as ads served by your choice of ad networks. In addition, Mail2World's ad team is available to advise you about optimizing ad placements within the interface. If your users prefer an ad-free email environment, they can purchase a premium service upgrade for an annual fee that earns you a generous bounty per paid subscriber. An optional, fully branded store front is available for upgrade purchasing.

Each time users login to their email account, they generate recurring traffic to your site. Your users enjoy high-quality, feature-rich messaging that enhances your brand. Banners and sponsored taglines provide a marketing tool for displaying partner promotions, member discounts and targeted advertising that gives your users access to top-brand products and services. Promote your own products and services by including house ads in the banner ad rotation. Ad-sponsored email can cover the low monthly fee for your Mail2World email service, plus a profit for your organization. Earn more revenue from value-added services, such as premium upgrade packages and email-to-SMS text messaging.

ADVANCED M2W SPONSORED EMAIL FEATURES

Webmail & Mobile Advertising

Users can access their email and view revenue-generating ads via the Internet from any WAP-enabled mobile phone or PC using Webmail or a desktop client like Outlook.

Multiple Ad Opportunities

Through M2W Sponsored Email, you can create and manage in-house, network and/or private ads and RSS content. You can also promote local news feeds and sell exclusive sponsored skins to private advertisers.

Reflect Your Brand Identity

Build customer loyalty by branding your email interface. Customization tools include adding your logo, creating custom skins or color schemes, adding custom landing pages, and personalizing email login and welcome pages.

EXCLUSIVE SPONSORED SKINS

Sponsored skins are a high-impact, lucrative advertising medium powered by Mail2World's highly customizable email interface. If your site offers substantial traffic and well-defined visitor demographics, exclusive sponsored skin placements can attract large fees from top advertisers looking for unique advertising venues. Sponsored skin designs can be oriented around an advertiser's company, product, service or event. Unlike a single banner ad that displays in one location for three to five seconds as part of an ad rotation, sponsored skins are integral to the Mail2World email interface and remain on display the entire time a user is on an email page, which is usually two to three minutes.

Sponsored skins are a unique and powerful way to promote events, companies, products, services, entertainment media and more.

Sponsorship Overview

Sponsored skins can be displayed on top of your organization's email interface to generate additional revenue. Sponsored skin placements may be made available to advertisers in 3-month, 6-month and 12-month subscriptions.

Sponsored Skin Design Options

Sponsor-specific banner ads or exclusive multi-banner rotations can be placed in the masthead. Brand color schemes can be fully integrated across your email interface. Product images or logos may appear under menu buttons in navigation bars. Clickable custom icons, such as a soft-drink can or bottle, can replace standard navigation icons. Icons can be programmed to disappear on mouseover to display the full sponsored skin. Ad graphics or logos may be ghosted back behind content on the Welcome page, Message Preview window and other locations within the email service.

Golden Skins

"Golden skins" are limited, exclusive skins that promote prizes or promotional codes and are displayed randomly to some users (e.g., country-specific, U.S. state-specific, language, gender). The exclusivity of golden skins builds anticipation and attracts high sponsor fees.
